Market Place and more

Salisbury has had a Charter Market since 1227 and during the spring, summer and autumn there are extra events such as art markets, farmers markets, a food and drink festival as well as a funfair in October. The best way to find out the latest details of what's on is to use the dedicated website and join their mailing list. Charter Market days: Tuesday/ Saturday

Exhibitions at SDH

Levels 3 & 4 SDH North

May 26th to June 24th: Laura Bell Group

Wilton House is only 3 miles from Salisbury, easy to reach by car, bus or bicycle and is the home of the Earl of Pembroke - a family with several ties to the hospital over the centuries.

The grounds are a family-friendly location with an adventure playground and cafe, wheelchair accessible paths and toilets. The house and estate have been featured in TV series' and films such as Bridgerton, The Crown and Emma. Entry for children under 5 is free and there are day tickets and annual membership options.

Alternatively, sign up for the Stars Appeal Walk for Wards and enjoy exclusive access to acres of the parkland while raising money for your favourite Salisbury District Hospital team or department.

Info: www.wiltonhouse.co.uk

Buses: R3 and R8 from city centre

On your bike

Salisbury NHS Trust staff can explore the option of paying for a new bike through payroll. SFT is part of the VIVUP Cycle to Work scheme and there are choices of mountain, road and hybrid bikes to choose from. Local shops that are part of the scheme are Hayballs (Winchester St.) Stonehenge Cycles (Fisherton St.) and A1 Motabiz (Brown St.) as well as national chains like Halfords. Join the scheme here: www.vivupbenefits.co.uk/access-my-benefits/

Local places for second hand bikes include Hayballs (as above) Alabare charity warehouse at Wilton, the Sue Ryder Charity shop in the Maltings and The Salvation Army in Salt Lane on Saturdays.
